- 6 IT'S WRAP

YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES TO PLACE
AFRICA ON THE TECHNOLOGY MAP ONCE GAIN!!!

WHICH IS WHY
YOU WERE SELECTED

The #BuildforSDG Challenge has been described to be one of the toughest developer program out there that prepares you adequately for the REAL-WORLD.

We have heard past participants say that it is only the strongest, toughest and fiercest that complete this program all the way to the end--And this makes us super proud that we are definitely doing something right?

NOW THAT WE HAVE SET THE PACE
CONGRATULATIONS!!!

On being selected as 1 of the top 6k+ Developers to advance in this program.
This is no small fit, so take this second and give yourself an e-round of applause

OUR TOP 3 STEPS TO GETTING STARTED

We understand you can't have this concluded in a day, but we guess 3 days is pretty fine to have this sorted

Select an Industry from the list below to pick out the top projects you would like to work on

NOW THAT I HAVE SELECTED A PROJECT TOPIC, WHAT NEXT?

REMEMBER WE ARE IN THIS TOGETHER

STEP 1

I have selected TRANSPORTATION as my INDUSTRY of choice.

All that is left for me is to think of an idea/solution I will like to build my project on i.e E-Hailing

STEP 2

I have decided to build an application that provides transportation for commuters at the touch of a button--All that is left for me is to document this idea in my Week 1 Project tracker as well as other details about this idea once I receive this form my assigned program assistant.

TEAM DYNAMICS

SKIP THIS STEP IF YOU
ARE A SINGLE PARTICIPANT

* Who Are Your Teammates

- Your team is made of 3-4 Front-end developers and 3-4 Back-end developers

* How Were My Teammates
Selected

- Your team-mates were selected based on the similarity in the application languages you all have the most level of proficiency in. We recommend you also make use of this application language when building your teams project

* Really! Who Really
Are My Teammates

- Believe us when we tell you that your teammates are some of the most talented developers in the globe -- Take the time to get to know them. Just watch and see how you could build a freindship that could take your career to places
